ANNUAL PROGRAM REPORT

YWCA IS ON A MISSION

At YWCA Central Alabama, we've long known just how widespread domestic violence is in our society. National statistics show that 1 in 4 women and 1 in 7 men will be abused by an intimate partner, so it's pretty likely that we all know someone who is a victim – whether we realize it or not.

That statistic became personal in 2016, when 20 people in Jefferson County were killed by someone who had claimed to love them. It was a record number, and it caught the community's attention. Through rallies, candlelight vigils, media interviews, and community-wide events, the YW staff educated the public about the warning signs of abuse and the life-saving services we offer: two confidential shelters, a 24-hour Crisis Hotline (205.322.4878), legal assistance, court advocacy, support groups, counseling and more.

I am proud of the important work we do at the YWCA. We work every day to help women, children and families in crisis transform their lives, and none of it would be possible without your faithful and overwhelming support. Because of you, children of homeless and low-income families get the very best start in life in our nationally-accredited child development program, and hundreds of low-income individuals and families can find safe, affordable housing. Middle and high school students learn how to advocate for inclusive schools and communities and a future that is fair to all, and women and children who are no longer safe at home can find lives free from abuse.

In an effort to best meet the needs of our community, the YW launched several new initiatives in 2016. Our SMILE (Single Mothers Invested, Learning, Empowered) program allowed 12 single mothers living in poverty to be trained as dental assistants, giving them the skills to fulfill their potential. In the wake of the controversial shooting deaths of black men and police officers, we hosted Face to Face with Race events, allowing participants to have honest, constructive dialogue about a subject that is often considered taboo. We also helped bring a job training program for the chronically unemployed to our Family Resource Center in Woodlawn.

I am so grateful to our staff, Board and Junior Board members, and other community volunteers who are committed to helping fulfill our mission of eliminating racism, empowering women and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all. The generous support from our donors, community partners and corporate sponsors is truly humbling.

Thank you for making YW Magic possible!

Sincerely,

2016 program statistics

YWCA Central Alabama is working every day to eliminate racism and empower women. We serve women, children and families in adverse circumstances, whether they live in poverty or in fear for their lives. The YWCA meets critical needs by providing child development programs, domestic violence services, affordable housing and social justice programming.

Here's a look at how YWCA of Central Alabama changed lives in 2016:

Child Development

- ▶ provided 14,632 days of care to 90 children in the child development program for children of homeless and low-income families
